Greetings:

DCGD Veterans Project

During Desert Conference Gala Day 2026, with the approval of Deputy of the Desert, HPIP Louis T. Harper (08), and Deputy for the Desert, HPIC Bertha L. Baker (96), the Desert of Florida Temples, Courts, Nobles, and Daughters will collectively support two local Veterans Programs by donating needed items to each of them.

The chosen organizations:

HUD-VASH (Housing and Urban Development-Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing), a joint effort by HUD and VA that assists veterans who are at-risk of becoming homeless or homeless with rental assistance and intensive case management to help them find and keep permanent housing, connecting them with healthcare, mental health, and other services to improve their lives.

Tallahassee Veterans Village, a transitional housing program for homeless veterans, is managed by Volunteers of America of Florida, offering supportive services like case management, job training, and counseling to help veterans achieve independence.

Each Temple and Court is asked to bring a minimum of 10 to 15 items from the list below to be presented to representatives from each organization at the end of the parade on Saturday, May 30th, as a joint charitable effort and collective donation from the Desert of Florida.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Dt. Angelia Ross, PC, Veterans Chair – Ahmed Court No.134 at amarijross@gmail.com or Noble Stan Youmas, HPP, Veteran's Chair - Ahmed Temple No.37 at Stanyoumas273@comcast.net.

EVENT OVERVIEW

Temples and Courts are invited to plan and prepare their own meals for this signature Pass & Review and Cookout event. Whether it's a fish fry, crab or seafood boil, or a classic barbecue, this is a time to fellowship, showcase your culinary talents, and enjoy the spirit of unity and tradition.

WHO SHOULD PARTICIPATE

- All Temples and Courts
- Nobles and Daughters in attendance

IMPORTANT NOTES

- Please bring your own tents (maximum size 20' x 20'), portable chairs, and tables to ensure comforts and shade.
- You are welcome to bring your own grills (large, small, or portable). Please be mindful of space and neighboring Temples and Courts.

REGISTRATION

RSVP Required

- In the spirit of camaraderie, all participants are encouraged to prepare enough food to share with fellow Nobles and Daughters. Sharing great barbecue, seafood, dishes, and sides is what makes a tailgate special!
